

Star Mythology: Creating a Constellation

Subject: Visual Arts, Creative Writing Grade Level: M3 Time to Complete: 30 minutes

Create a new constellation and share the myth that earned your character a place in the stars.

Constellations are the shapes stars make in the sky. The Mythology is the story behind the shapes.

IN THIS PROJECT, YOU WILL:

- 1. Create a new myth
- 2. Draw your new constellation

WHY MAKE A CONSTELLATION:

- 1. Explore myth and imagine why a character deserves a spot in the sky.
- 2. Use points to help others visualize an image.

VOCABULARY:

Constellation, mythology, stars

MATERIALS:

- Drawing Tools (pencils, markers, pens, crayons, etc.)
- White Paper
- Black or Dark Blue Paper
- A Safety Pin
- If possible, a computer, tablet or smartphone to view an instructional video

• Extra materials: If you wish, you could have sequins, glitter, buttons, etc. to make your constellation, but it is not necessary.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES:

Creating a Constellation Video

MAKE YOUR CONSTELLATION:

- 1. If possible, watch this video on the Hercules Constellation myth.
- 2. Create a new myth and name for your constellation. For example, The Myth of the Fishmonger a woman who gave her fish to the poor and needy instead of selling the fish to the wealthy.
 - a. Who is the myth about?
 - b. Why? What did they do to earn a spot in the sky?
 - c. What is the name of your new myth?
- 3. On a piece of white paper (could be the same paper you wrote your new myth story on), draw a picture that represents the main character in your new myth.
- 4. Figure out the placement of your stars. Some may be bigger, some smaller. Remember, your constellation doesn't have to look exactly like your picture.
- 5. On your dark piece of paper draw your stars. Don't worry if you don't have dark paper-you can use white paper and color the background.
- 6. Once you have your stars placed, very carefully poke holes where your stars are located. You can use a pin, or just the tip of your pencil.
- 7. Hold your new constellation up to a lamp and enjoy your new constellation!
- 8. Extra: If you wish, you can draw your new constellation and use sequins, glitter, buttons, etc. as your stars! Have fun and be creative!

SHARE OUT:

- 1. Share your project with your friends and family! Tell them your new myth and show them your constellation. Ask them:
 - Why do you think my main character earned a place in the stars?

• From looking at my stars, what image do you think I chose to represent my main character?

SELF REFLECTION:

- 1. What creative choices did I make?
- 2. What problems did I solve?
- 3. Overall, I think my work is successful because:
- 4. If I were to do this activity again, I would do these things differently:
